

Painting workshops

for cancer patients, relatives and staff in the foyer of Cancer Centre and Bridgewater Suite with Nevin Bossart 26-29 July 2010 10am-4pm

An exhibition of the artwork completed during the workshops will be displayed in the Art Gallery (Ground floor, Belfast City Hospital Tower).

There will be an official opening of the exhibition by Geoff Hill (Co-Director, Specialist Services) at 2pm on Friday July 30 2010.

Nevin Bossart is the artist in residence at Lombardi Hospital, USA. He will be present in the foyer of the Cancer Centre to paint with patients and their families. No previous painting experience is required. Taking inspiration from sunflowers he teaches a simple four step process that those waiting can do quickly.
