

Make up demonstrations at the Macmillan Support and Information Centre

The Macmillan Support and Information Centre, is planning a series of free make up demonstrations by Marcus Hunter-Neill, professional make up artist and beautician

Are you interested in learning a simple twelve step make up programme especially designed for women going through chemotherapy treatment?

In the hour long session Marcus will demonstrate:

how to look after your skin
apply make up
create and fill in eyebrows
how to tie head scarves.

Don't miss this opportunity to pick up tips and ask questions of an experienced beautician.
